Burroughes said that this was his last report from Suffolk Coastal District Council (SCDC) as the new East Suffolk District Council will replace the council on April 1st 2019. He said that the last SCDC Meeting would be on March 28th 2019 and as the election for councillors does not take place until May 2nd, there would be a Shadow Council until the new councillors take office on May 6th. Cllr. S. Burroughes said that the new logo for the East Suffolk District Council cost £5000 and the press reports regarding the costs of the gathering to mark the end of SCDC were exaggerated.

Cllr. S. Burroughes said that Suffolk County Council (SCC) had passed the budget in February doing a deal with the Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) whereby the Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) are funding the health aspects of the CAB. CAB are also going to review their efficiency. Cllr. S. Burroughes also reported that the many more children and the number is rising are vulnerable and being put into care. He said 900 are now in the care of SCC and this is more than in the past. Cllr. Z. Mair remarked that she hoped that when these children leave the care home, they were not lured into gangs and drugs.

Cllr. M. Porter asked why the renovation of the Felixstowe Seafront Gardens had overspent by £1m. Cllr. S. Burroughes said that he would have to find out the answer.

Cllr. S. Burroughes said that he would be standing as a candidate for East Suffolk District Council but as the wards would be larger with more Parish Councils, Area forums were being looked at as a way where the Parish Councils could meet their District Councillors. He said that locality budgets would be larger and East Suffolk District Council would be a Housing Authority again as they would be building houses.

Finally, Cllr. S. Burroughes said that he would contribute some money to the River Blyth sign.

Cllr. Z. Mair said that the stone was very beautiful and too nice to have a plaque or any engravings put on it. She said that the names of the fallen should be engraved on a plaque and put on a post near the stone. She emphasised that the plaque nor the names of the fallen should be put on the stone. She wondered if a bench should be placed by the stone so that people could have a space for contemplation. Cllr. C. Northover thought that the plaque should be on the stone or else he wondered why the stone was on the Village Green. It was agreed to have a public meeting to look at the Council's plans and for the public to discuss it. Cllr. Z. Mair said that she would email some dates for a public meeting.
